

Chandigarh Gets Its First Dental Spa

Setting foot inside a dental clinic is going to be an experience one would like to savour. In fact the whole experience will definitely make you look forward to another visit. Concept of a Dental Spa may be a novel one but is definitely going to catch the fancy of those who want to be treated royally.

Chandigarh has got North India's first Dental Spa, TOOTHPIK in Sector 44. Apart from providing regular dental services to its clients, this new clinic will provide services like Aromatherapy, foot and hand massage, music of choice and even eye masks to make clients fully comfortable. Idea behind the whole exercises is to offer unforgettable atmosphere where client could relax and actually enjoy the treatment. Dental Spa will even be having special pre bridal package for young brides who are looking for a beautiful smile on their marriage. The venture is a brain child of young, dynamic and innovative dentist Dr. Mehak Jain. After making her name in the field of general and cosmetic dentistry, Dr. Mehak Jain is now all set to introduce this novel idea in her home town.

Dental Spa is a concept adopted in few advanced countries, but is totally new for India, particular for Chandigarh, says Dr. Mehak. The whole idea is to reduce the dental anxiety which often overpowers most of persons before visiting dental clinic. People are really scared to visit a dentist but TOOTHPIK is going to change all this, she quipped. Anxiety is one of the major reasons that people avoid visiting dentist and often aggravate even simple problems. But once this aspect is taken care of, they will look forward to visiting dental clinic, she further says. To make dentist visiting a wholesome experience TOOTHPIK has introduced goodie bags for children. In fact a fully dedicated section for children, accompanying parents, has been created.

Apart from that, clinic will be monitoring oral health of Children right from the first tooth. This will allow children to grow up with healthy and beautiful teeth.

Now if you want to have scent of lavender while getting your teeth scaled and want personal masseur to massage your feet while getting root canal treatment, TOOTHPIK is the place to be in.
